

Daily Democrat.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

A. H. Stephens and the Andersonville Prison.

Jeff. Davis Changes his Quarters.

Late Intelligence from Mexico.

Freedmen's Affairs in Kentucky.

New York, Sept. 9.

Gold is rather stronger, the average quotation for morning being 144½.

The City of Washington and House take on to-day.

The total export of specie for the week is $2,021,202.

The Evening Post says it has been informed that Alex. Stephens, on his return from the South, very naturally, if not quite, as the people of the North, thought the people in the South were to be resurrected. The majority of the people recognize in the result of a tour of inspection through Middle and East Tennessee and North Alabama, and in the opinions of the Southern people, the object of the tour was to keep the Southern people in suspense. The question was now, before the people of Georgia a large majority would vote for abolition.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 9.

The billiard tournament for the championship of the State, which has been in progress during the past week, terminated to-night, as follows:

The first prize a gold value of $200, was won by R. T. Williams, of Ranger, Second prize a silver goblet valued $50, was won by Chas. E. Stitt, of Augusta.

Mr. Smith, of Augusta, has challenged the winner to play him match for $200 and championship.

OFFICIAL.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

THURSDAY EVENING, Sept. 7, 1865.

Present—President Brown and all the members, except Alderman Birrell, Hulbert, Baxter, Crowe, Caruth, Twyman and Lockhart—T. McClure, Esq., Alderman elected from the Third Ward, appeared, was qualified, and took his seat, and was assigned to the appropriate committee.

The reading of the papers of the preceding session was dispensed with, and the same were approved.

A position from Fred. Boshier, in reference to his residence house, was read and referred to the Committee on Taverns and Cafes.

The Auditor's statement of the condition of appropriations to the 11th of September, 1865, was submitted and referred to the Finance Committee.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

Fire Department, $5,325.30, expenses for August, 1864.

The subscription of military to civil authority in Mississippi meets with Mr. Seward's hearty concurrence.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

The Commercial's Washington special says that Jeff. Davis has been special agent of the Department of War, and placed in one of the commissaries quarters in the Fortress. This change was effected at the suggestion of his physician, who said his health was suffering.

The Auditor's statement of the condition of appropriations to the 11th of September, 1865, was such that should his trial continue another month will die.

President Seward will probably resume his office to-day.

The subscription of military to civil authority in Mississippi meets with Mr. Seward's hearty concurrence.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

The Commercial's Washington special says that Jeff. Davis has been special agent of the Department of War, and placed in one of the commissaries quarters in the Fortress. This change was effected at the suggestion of his physician, who said his health was suffering.

The Auditor's statement of the condition of appropriations to the 11th of September, 1865, was submitted and referred to the Finance Committee.

CLAIMS ALLOWED.

Fire Department, $5,325.30, expenses for August, 1864.

Workhouse, $1,753.38, expenses for August, 1865.

Hospital, $1,562.45, expenses for August, 1865.

Street funds, Eastern District, $1,322.

Street funds, Western District, $1,549.62.

Post Office, $1,875.48, pay for August, 1865.

Almshouse, $875.28, expenses for August, 1865.

Salsbury & Son, $85.25, for repair of pump.

L. T. Tigar, $28.75, for repair of pump.

J. M. Whiter, $89.50, for repairing Jeffers-street graveyard.

J. P. Harrison, $1,000, additional salary for August, 1865.

J. P. Cronin, $6.75, for ice.

S. G. Sles, $26.75, for repairing Franklin street.

J. A. McPhee, $111, for repairing water-house.

W. W. Williams, $87.75, for work on Council Chamber.

J. P. Barnes, $4.15, for making police badges.

T. B. Perrine, $6.75, for making police badges.

L. D. Pearson, $132, for wood for work-house.

J. P. Manger, $22, for printing.

P. Pfleider, Phil. & Co., $10, for printing.

Jas. Kel, $15, for paving intersection of Magazine and Thirteenth streets.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted the separate contracts, executed with A. H. Hustler, contractor, for the construction of inlets to the Seventeenth and Thirteenth streets, which were referred to the Mayor.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.

Alderman Baxter submitted a resolution from the Common Council, directing the Assistant City Attorney to waive his unopposed right of action as derived by the attorney, J. T. Blackford & Co., in a suit against the city, which was adopted.